From the Crown

Good and joyous tidings unto all, from Irel and Rosalind, Righ and ban-Righ of these fair Outlands.

The summer event season is in full swing. and many more wonderful events lie ahead for us all. We send Our thanks to the autocrats of Glory, Lady Arnden and Lady Sofia, for their efforts in running this glorious event. There were many gentles from Artemesia, Calontir, and Northshield in attendance whom We also wish to thank for sharing in the fun with Us.

Congratulations to Duncan MacAllister for his elevation to the Ancient and Honorable Order of the Pelican. Please also join us in a hearty huzzah for THL Bjarki who was offered admittance into the Order of Chivalry and to Countess Aindrea who was offered admittance into the Order of the Pelican. His Lordship will receive the accolade at Barons War, and Her Excellency's ceremony will be held at a later date in the reign.

Some sad news has come to the fore and We wish to inform all that the Northern War, which was tentatively scheduled for the 4th of July weekend of 2004 in Artemesia, will not be possible by that date. Negotiations and preparations are still in the works, however, and We hope that the brotherhood and friendship between Our two realms will continue until this event can become a reality.

Please join Us in welcoming two new members of the War Council. Count Bela Kos has been installed as one of the northern chivalry representatives and Countess Elizabeth O'Byrne stepped into the Pelican position. Our sincere appreciation to Sir Hoegaarden and Mistress Madigan who held those positions in the past and have now retired. Their service on behalf of the Outlands war effort was stellar.

It has come to Our notice that there is the impression that the War Council is a "Secret Group" that is only for peers to have a say in. The council is for the betterment of all in this kingdom and in that vein everyone's opinions and ideas are welcome there. If you have an idea or suggestion please feel free to contact any of the members, and they will bring it forward. Every idea that has been offered to this point has been enacted in some way. Also, remember that the War Council is there to help with more than just the fighting aspects of the Outlands going to war. They work for the betterment of the arts and those who serve to help all of us have as much fun as possible at the wars that we attend.

We send Our thanks to those attending Us in recent events in the far off lands of Artemesia and Calontir. Many a good report came to Us of these outstanding representatives or Our realm and We are proud of those who gave of their time and service for Our benefit.

Crown Tournament and the Coronation of Our successors have been awarded to Caer Galen and Fontaine dans Sable respectively. These events will double as Investitures of Our two newest baronies should the Board of Directors make final approval of these groups' advancement. Hosting these large events can be a daunting task, and We ask that those who are able offer to aid these groups so that they can also enjoy the investitures of their first rulers in Our stead.

We wish you all safe travels with health, wealth, and prosperity in these balmy summer days,

Irel and Rosalind

Feast Day of Saint Golias

College of Saint Golias, October 4, A.S. XXXVIII

Unto all the fine gentles of these fair Outlands does the College of Saint Golias send warmest greetings!

Twenty-six years has this fine College dedicated ourselves to the most honorable pursuits of our patron Saint. Many great endeavors have we undertaken in our sacred quest for the finest Wine, Women, and Song. Upon the Fourth day of October we welcome all good gentles to celebrate with us the Feast Day of Saint Golias, and to share the fruits of our labors.

The Celebration will commence at 10 a.m. on the New Mexico Tech Athletics Field (801 Leroy Pl. Socorro, NM 87801) with a game tourney, since it was ever Saint Golias' duty to spread the knowledge of dice, cards and other such challenges of wit and skill. Following the merriment, fierce combat shall commence to determine the new Defender of Saint Golias, as well as our patron saint's First Blade.

The evening would not be complete without feast and frolic, and both shall be had at the New Mexico Tech SAC (801 Leroy Pl. Socorro, NM 87801), although said feast-hall is subject to change at the whim of the Gods. Please send word of your willingness to join in our merriment by September 4, 2003 to ensure yourself a seat at our table.

Alas, our feast, frolic, and tourney sites are dry, however the most honorable pursuits of Saint Golias will be heartily celebrated at the after-revel following (site to be announced at feast).

From the Seneschal

Unto the populace of the Outlands does Master Adam Stedefast, Kingdom Seneschal sends greetings.

I would like to take this time to share a philosohpy that I have about how to encourage growth in our local groups, as well as in the kingdom: Regardless of how many members a local group may have, most problems can be solved by recruiting quality newcomers. If your numbers are low, if individuals hold more than one office out of necessity, if the same people are running event after event because volunteers are short, then you need to recruit. Recruit not only to increase or replenish your numbers, but to add fresh ideas and enthusiasm so that older members don't burn out. In addition to the traditional methods, one of my favorites is to take the newcomers you do have and actively encourage them to take jobs they are able and would like to do. Not only does this train them, but also by making the new folks into experienced folks, a vacuum is created that attracts even newer folk. And the cycle continues. Our kingdom is full of fun jobs that newer (and more experience) gentles can participate in that not only help the group, but will also make that individual feel as productive and as valued as they are.

Though the heat of the summer is still upon us, it is never too early to think of cooler days, those days that in which we bring a little hope and joy to the deserving- the season for Toys for Tots. Last year's interkingdom challenge was so successful that many kingdoms are already making plans to bury us in toys. While a worthy endeavor indeed, we must begin making plans and harvesting new ideas to bring to the fold. Because after all, it is the Outlands that has set the standard for generosity and charity.

From the Windhover Bard

Greetings and good health unto the populace of the Mighty Kingdom of the Outlands!

July was amazing with bardic activity, and I am so proud of all those who have participated in some capacity. The two finalists for the next Windhover Bard have been found, and I urge all the populace of the Kingdom to join Their Majesties, Their Highnesses and I at Crown Tourney in September as your next Windhover Bard is decided. Huzzah to them and to all who witnessed the skill exhibited by all the glorious bards of the Outlands!

This month sees me journeying to Pennsic War where I will do my best to represent the Kingdom and Their Majesties as is so deserved. I will be hosting a bardic there, and I urge all who are attending to join me to show the Known World just how wonderful the Outlands is! For those who are unable to join us, we will sorely miss you. Please keep your bard fires burning and the songs of the Dream alive in your hearts to sing us back home again.

From the Earl Marshall

Greetings Outlanders,

This summer looks to be quite active in the fighting arena. There's been a host of tournaments, special events, demos, and wars to fill most every fighter's need. There's still more to come in the next few months.

The new authorization process seems to be going well. I wish to thank all those who have taken on the initial process of serving this Kingdom as authorizing marshals and helping make the new process as smooth as possible. Without your help, the process would not have been as smooth. I believe that we are standardizing the authorizing process across the Outlands, so no matter where one authorizes the process is the same. I hope we can expand this continuity.

I am very happy to announce that Lord Mordrake has taken on the newly established position of Kingdom Combat Archery Marshal. He has served since before Estrella War in the role for the Outlands and I was very pleased that he accepted the position full time. Please work with him as we will continue to grow the Combat Archery aspects within the Outlands. He is currently working on new standards and rules for combat archery, so please contact him with ideas and concepts to help further CA.

I hope to visit with as many fighters and marshals throughout the summer. If you have not seen either myself of any of the Kingdom Deputy Earl Marshals, please drop us a line and we will make every effort to visit your area. I have heard positive reports concerning the expanded travel of many of the chivalry of the Outlands to outlying areas to help train and authorize new fighters. This was the Marshallate's main goal in beginning this new process. I hope we can continue to grow our training efforts across the land!

I would like to make it known the Master Gwilim de Glamorgan has been added to the list of authorizing marshals in the Outlands. This list of marshals shall continue to grow in the next few months. If you desire to be added, please let me know.

It has taken some additional time, but we now have completed two new manuals available for new fighters and those who wish to become armored combat marshals. These manuals will help in preparing for the authorization process and are very informative as to the processes and should serve as a guide in training new fighters and marshals. These shall be available on the marshals' web page.

Enjoy the remaining summer months. Train hard for your tournaments and continue to prepare for the winter aspects of war. If you have any questions or comments regarding armored combat please do not hesitate to contact myself or anyone in the Kingdom Marshal's Office.

As always, be safe.

Lavan

From the Archer General

Greetings Archers!

Thanks to everyone who attended Stag's Con. Stag's Con has come and gone so most of you already know, but for those who were unable to make it, the AG's office won't be changing hands for one more year. While an immediate successor didn't emerge, we have a number of folks who are going to begin working toward succeeding to the office. In the next couple of months you will see an updated Target Archery handbook, a new Archery Officer's handbook, an updated Marshal of the Field test and changes to the MOF renewal process. We'll communicate these changes, as they are ready.

Remember for all the latest archery forms, handbooks and news see the Archer General web site: http://www.pcisys.net/~lyssa/outlands/archgen.html.

Larke
Archer General

From the Waterbearer

Greetings unto all the good Gentles of these Incomparable Outlands,

My deputies Mistress Rowen, and Lady Constance are working tirelessly to keep the groups of the Kingdom supplied with waterbearing equipment. If your group needs anything, please let my deputies or myself know.

I would like to extend a special thank you to Mistress Rowan for all her hard work in supporting the waterbearing at Glory. I also wish to acknowledge Maimuna for coordinating the waterbearing at Lonely Mountain. Both of these events are fairly large, and organizing the waterbearing is no small task, so know that you are appreciated.

Please keep in mind that the position of Waterbearer is now an official office. It is no longer a guild as it once was. Every group large enough to support one should have a waterbearer in their corps of officers. I would like to encourage every shire, college, canton, and barony who have not already done so to seek out and elevate some worthy gentle to the office of waterbearer.

In Service,

Lady Gwenydd Sastra

The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (1/2) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A June event MUST run in the June OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the two (2) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Generally, event announcements must fit on 1/2 page in months prior to the event, and 1 page the month of the event. Announcements exceeding this size may be trimmed to fit. Optionally, if you wish to exceed this limit, you can purchase space at current advertising rates. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication.

Please see the FROM THE CHRONICLER for information on the SEPTEMBER ISSUE one-time DEADLINE CHANGE
